

Incident Response Policy

In the event of a production incident, the on-call engineer must acknowledge the page within 15 minutes and post an initial status update in the #incidents Slack channel within 30 minutes. A post-incident review is required for any outage lasting longer than 1 hour.