

Data Security Policy

---

Company laptops must have disk encryption and the corporate VPN client installed before connecting to any internal systems. Employees are prohibited from storing client data on personal devices or unapproved cloud storage services.